

DRINKS

The Cider Buzz

American cider—the alcoholic kind—is having its trend moment with exciting new producers and varieties, from funky barrel-aged styles to dessert ciders akin to ice wines. Here, some of the best, plus three amazing cider bars.

BY KELLY SNOWDEN

DESSERT CIDERS TO TRY

Foggy Ridge Pippin Gold ($25) A crop of Newtown Pippin apples led Foggy Ridge to make an “apple port” by mixing its cider with apple brandy; the result is spicy with a touch of citrus. Dugspur, VA; foggyridgecider.com. Tastings Saturday and Sunday, May through early December.

FOOD & WINE

NOVEMBER 2011

Thanksgiving

65 delicious recipes
including the perfect turkey

BEST NEW HOLIDAY BAKING IDEAS
mini pies, sweet-salty cookies & more

Chef Michael Symon's cider-glazed turkey, great with an American Pinot Noir
PAGE 208

WWW.FOODANDWINE.COM $4.99

WINE LOVERS' GUIDE TO HOLIDAY PARTY PLANNING
America's great new airport restaurants

Featured in the November 2011 Food & Wine

FOGGY RIDGE

CIDER